What is Spouse Education and Career Opportunities?

Career Exploration

Identify career interests and aptitudes and find information about today's job market and work opportunities, including portable skills and careers, entrepreneurship and top federal employment options.

Free, comprehensive career coaching services are available to all eligible military spouses through the Military OneSource Spouse Career Center. Staffed by career coaches, the career center can help military spouses with creating an action plan targeting education programs, financial aid options, training program resources and credential or licensing information. Visit https://myseco.militaryonesource.mil for more information.

Education, Training and Licensing

Identify education, training and licensure or certification opportunities, as well as financial aid resources and scholarships.

The My Career Advancement Account Scholarship is a workforce development program that provides eligible military spouses with up to $4,000 in financial assistance for licenses, certifications or associate degrees to pursue an occupation or career field. Spouses of active-duty service members in pay grades E-1 to E-5, W-1 to W-2 and O-1 to O-2 who can request tuition assistance while their military sponsor is on Title 10 military orders, including the spouses of National Guard and reserves service members in these same pay grades, are eligible for the scholarship. Visit https://mycaa.militaryonesource.mil/ for more information.

Career Connections

Connect with corporations, government organizations and nonprofits to gain meaningful, long-term, portable employment.

The Military Spouse Employment Partnership Job Search connects military spouses with job opportunities from hundreds of partner employers who have committed to recruit, hire, promote and retain military spouses in portable careers. To help with their introduction, spouses are encouraged to self-identify when contacting or applying with these employment partners.
